COURSE FEES - **EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2002**

The fees listed below will apply to foreign, federal, out-of-state and private-sector firefighters and to unaffiliated individuals. Individuals subject to the fees must indicate their affiliation on the General Admission Application form, and must submit payment with the application. Payment must be in the form of a personal check, cashier's check or money order. Purchase orders from appropriate agencies are acceptable. Payments will not be processed until the course has officially started. Payments will be returned to those applicants not accepted into a course, or if the course is cancelled.

Course fees will not apply to those students who are members of New Mexico Municipal or County Fire Departments listed by the State Fire Marshal's Office as receiving state funding or on probation, or to those students who are employees of a New Mexico State agency. General Admission Applications must include the applicant's signature, as well as the signature of the Department Chief, supervisor or supervising officer. Otherwise, the applicant will be considered unaffiliated and be charged the appropriate fee.
